It is important that we have your views on this section. Please complete the questionnaire at the back of this brochure rating the options in order of preference.

Waterloo to Peckham

Option 1 - orange

Waterloo to Peckham
via Burgess Park

From Waterloo station the route goes south along Waterloo Road via St Georges Circus and London Road to Elephant & Castle.

The route continues along a short section of Walworth Road before turning left into Heygate Street. At the end of Heygate Street and following Rodney Road, Flint Street and Thurlow Street, to the Aylesbury Estate.

The route crosses Albany Road and enters Burgess Park running around the raised part of the park to Chandler Way, Commercial Way and Kelly Avenue to Peckham Road.

Advantages

- Direct and quick route
- Interchanges with Elephant & Castle Underground and National Rail stations

Peckham

Advantages

- Serves both Aylesbury Estate and North Peckham regeneration areas
- Opportunity for urban realm design and upgrade in Burgess Park

Disadvantages

- Requires new route through Burgess Park
- Land purchase would be required to deliver this option
- Environmental impact in Burgess Park

Option 2 - blue
Waterloo to Peckham via Wells Way

From Waterloo station the route follows the same route as option one to the Aylesbury Estate. The route turns right to run alongside Albany Road.

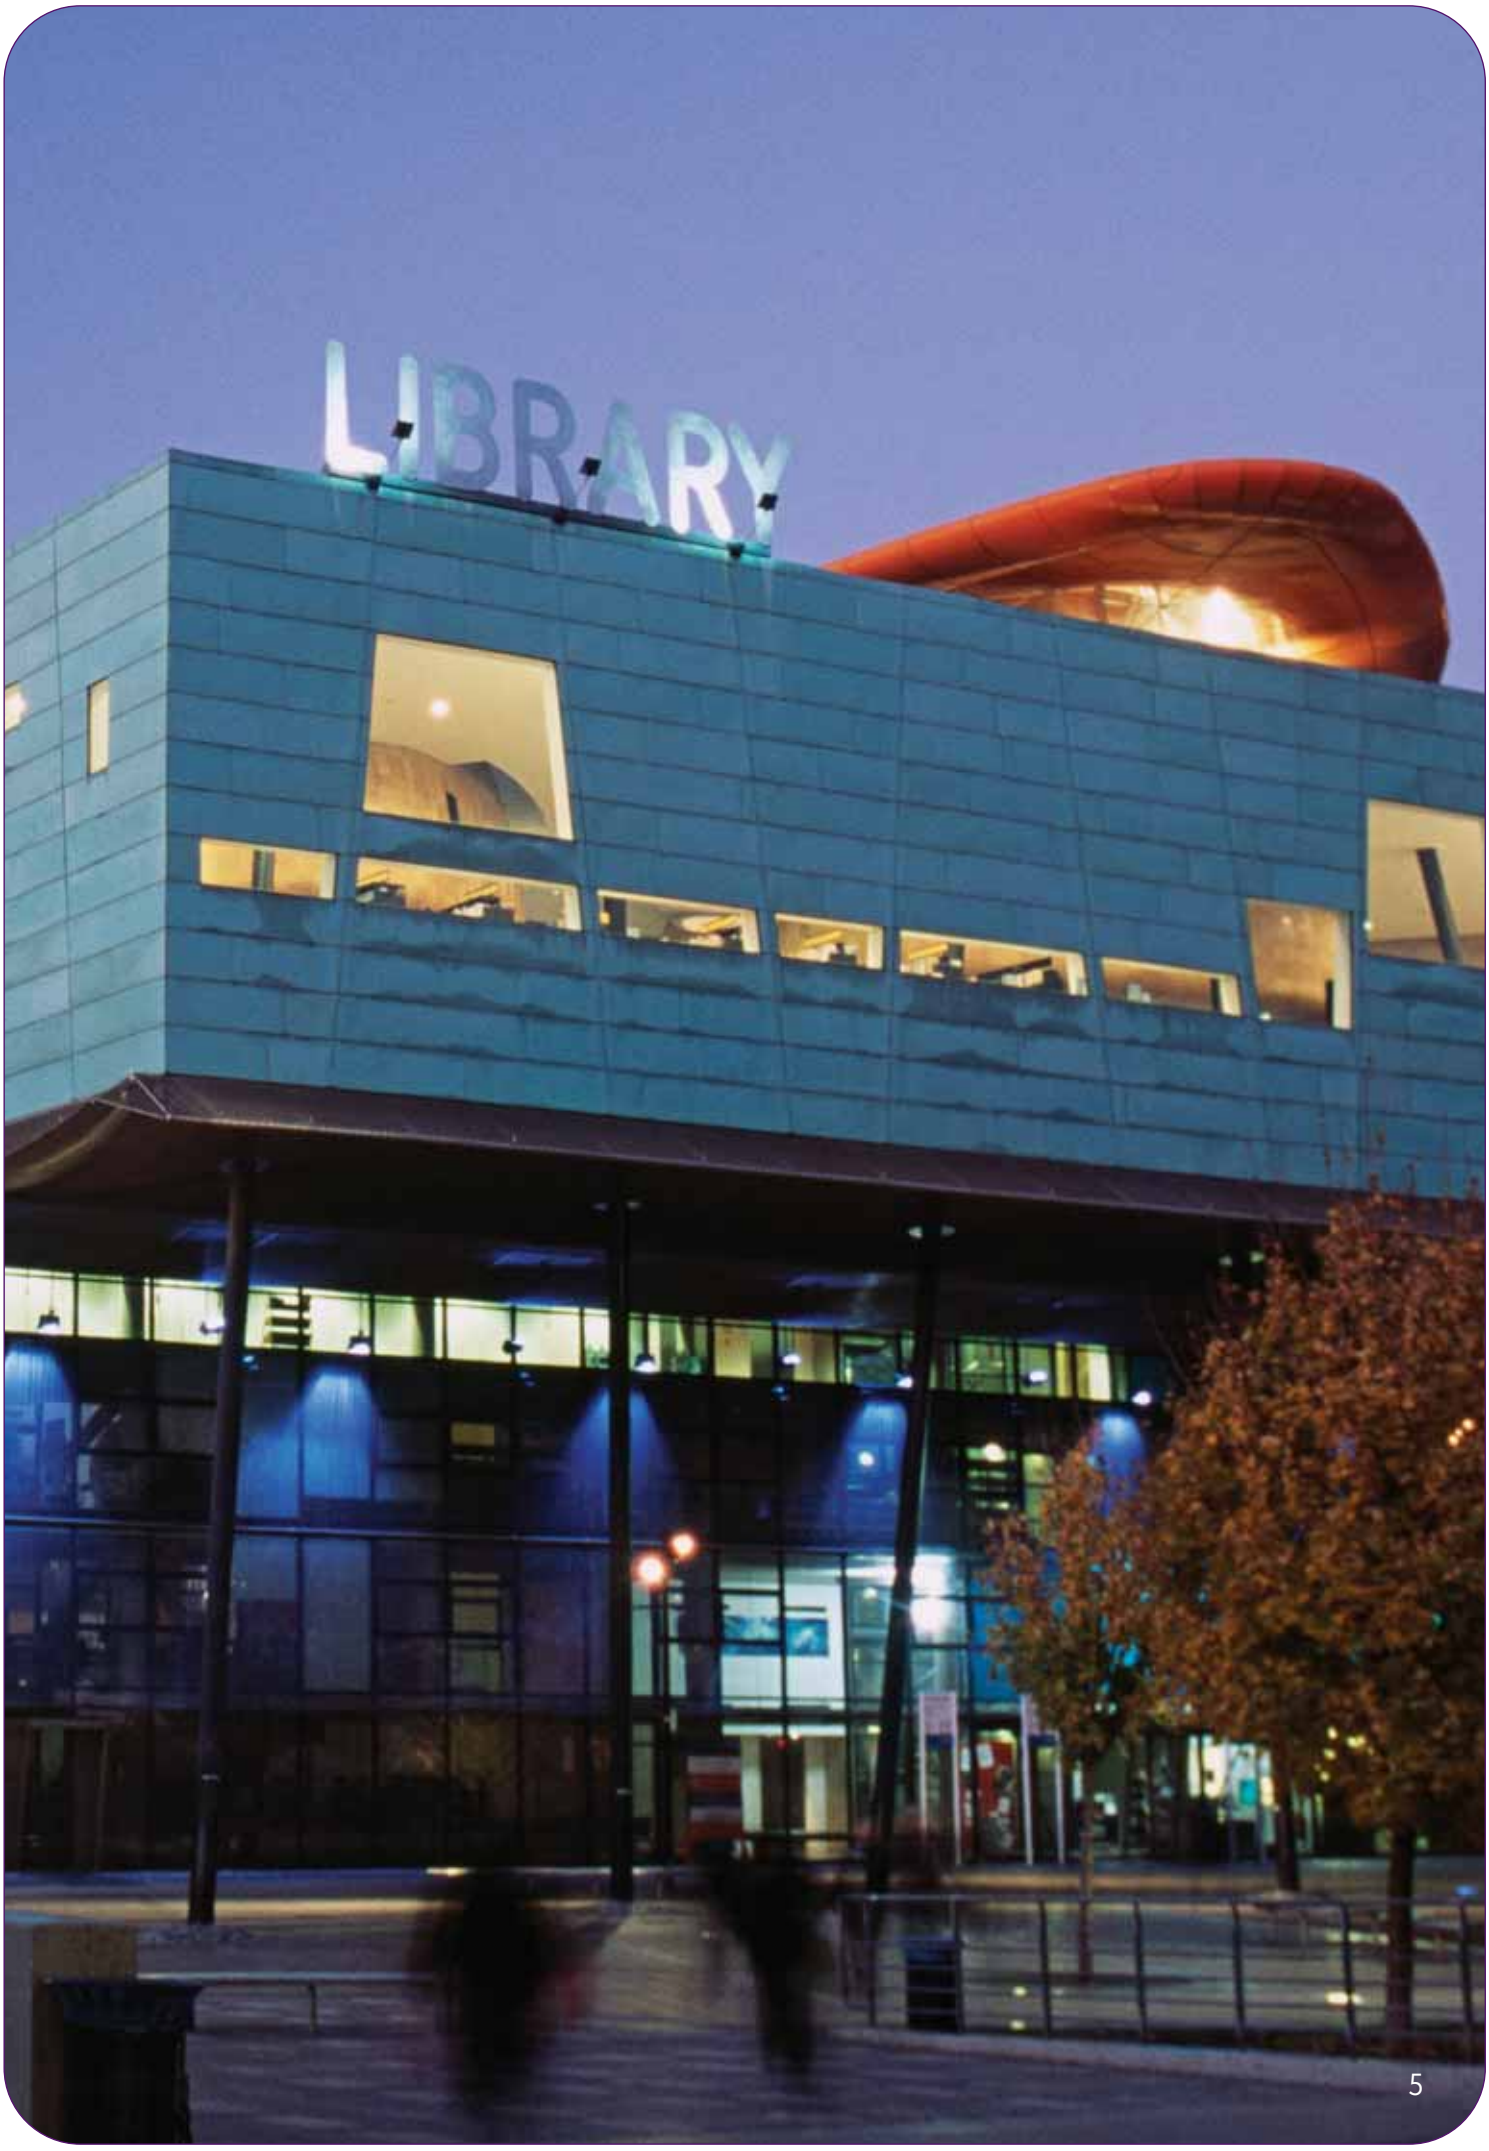
After 300 metres the route turns left into Wells Way to cross Burgess Park. At the end of Wells Way the route turns left onto Southampton Way to Peckham Road.

Advantages

- Follows existing highway through Burgess Park
- Serves Aylesbury Estate
- Interchanges with Elephant & Castle Underground and National Rail stations

Disadvantages

- Less direct more route option
- Serves only portion of North Peckham Estate
- Traffic using Wells Way and Southampton Way would be moved onto parallel roads.
- Property purchase could be required to deliver this option
- Reduction of developable land on North Peckham Estate



LIBRARY

Peckham Town Centre

Option 1 – red via Jocelyn Street/
Peckham Arch

From Peckham High Street the route turns left onto Sumner Avenue and after into Jocelyn Street, behind the Peckham Pulse Fitness Centre.

The route turns right into Peckham Town Square and through Peckham Arch.

The route crosses Peckham High Street and behind the shops opposite Peckham Arch and then on to the Bus Station.

Advantages

- Directly serves Peckham Town Square and amenities

Disadvantages

- Peckham Square currently pedestrian only. Tram introduction would impact on street scene and its use
- Property purchase could be required to deliver this option

Option 2 – green via Jocelyn Street/north of Peckham Library

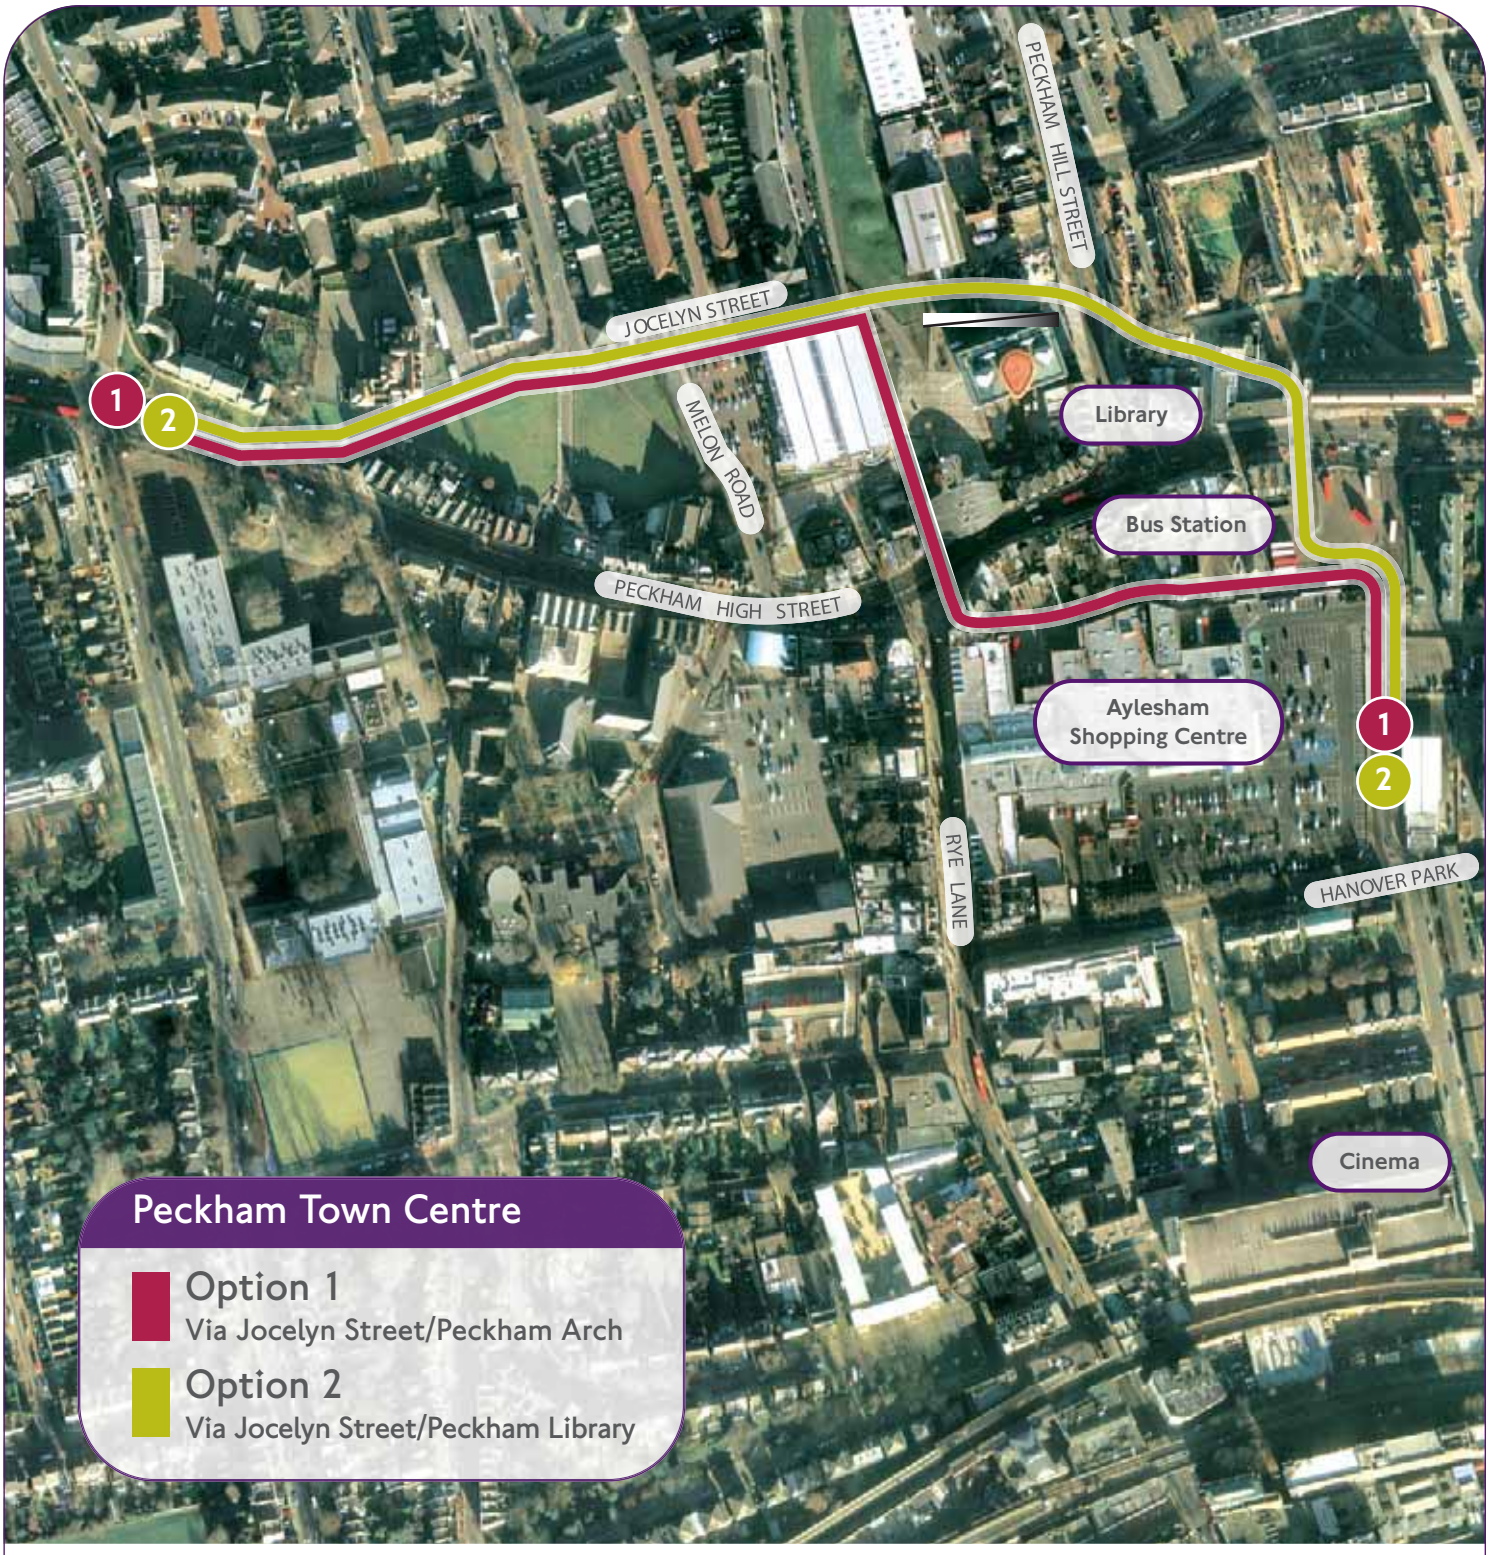
From Peckham High Street the route turns left onto Sumner Avenue and into Jocelyn Street.

The route passes behind the Library and crossing Peckham Hill Street through the current site of the former library and current Post Office. The route then crosses Peckham High Street directly into the bus station.

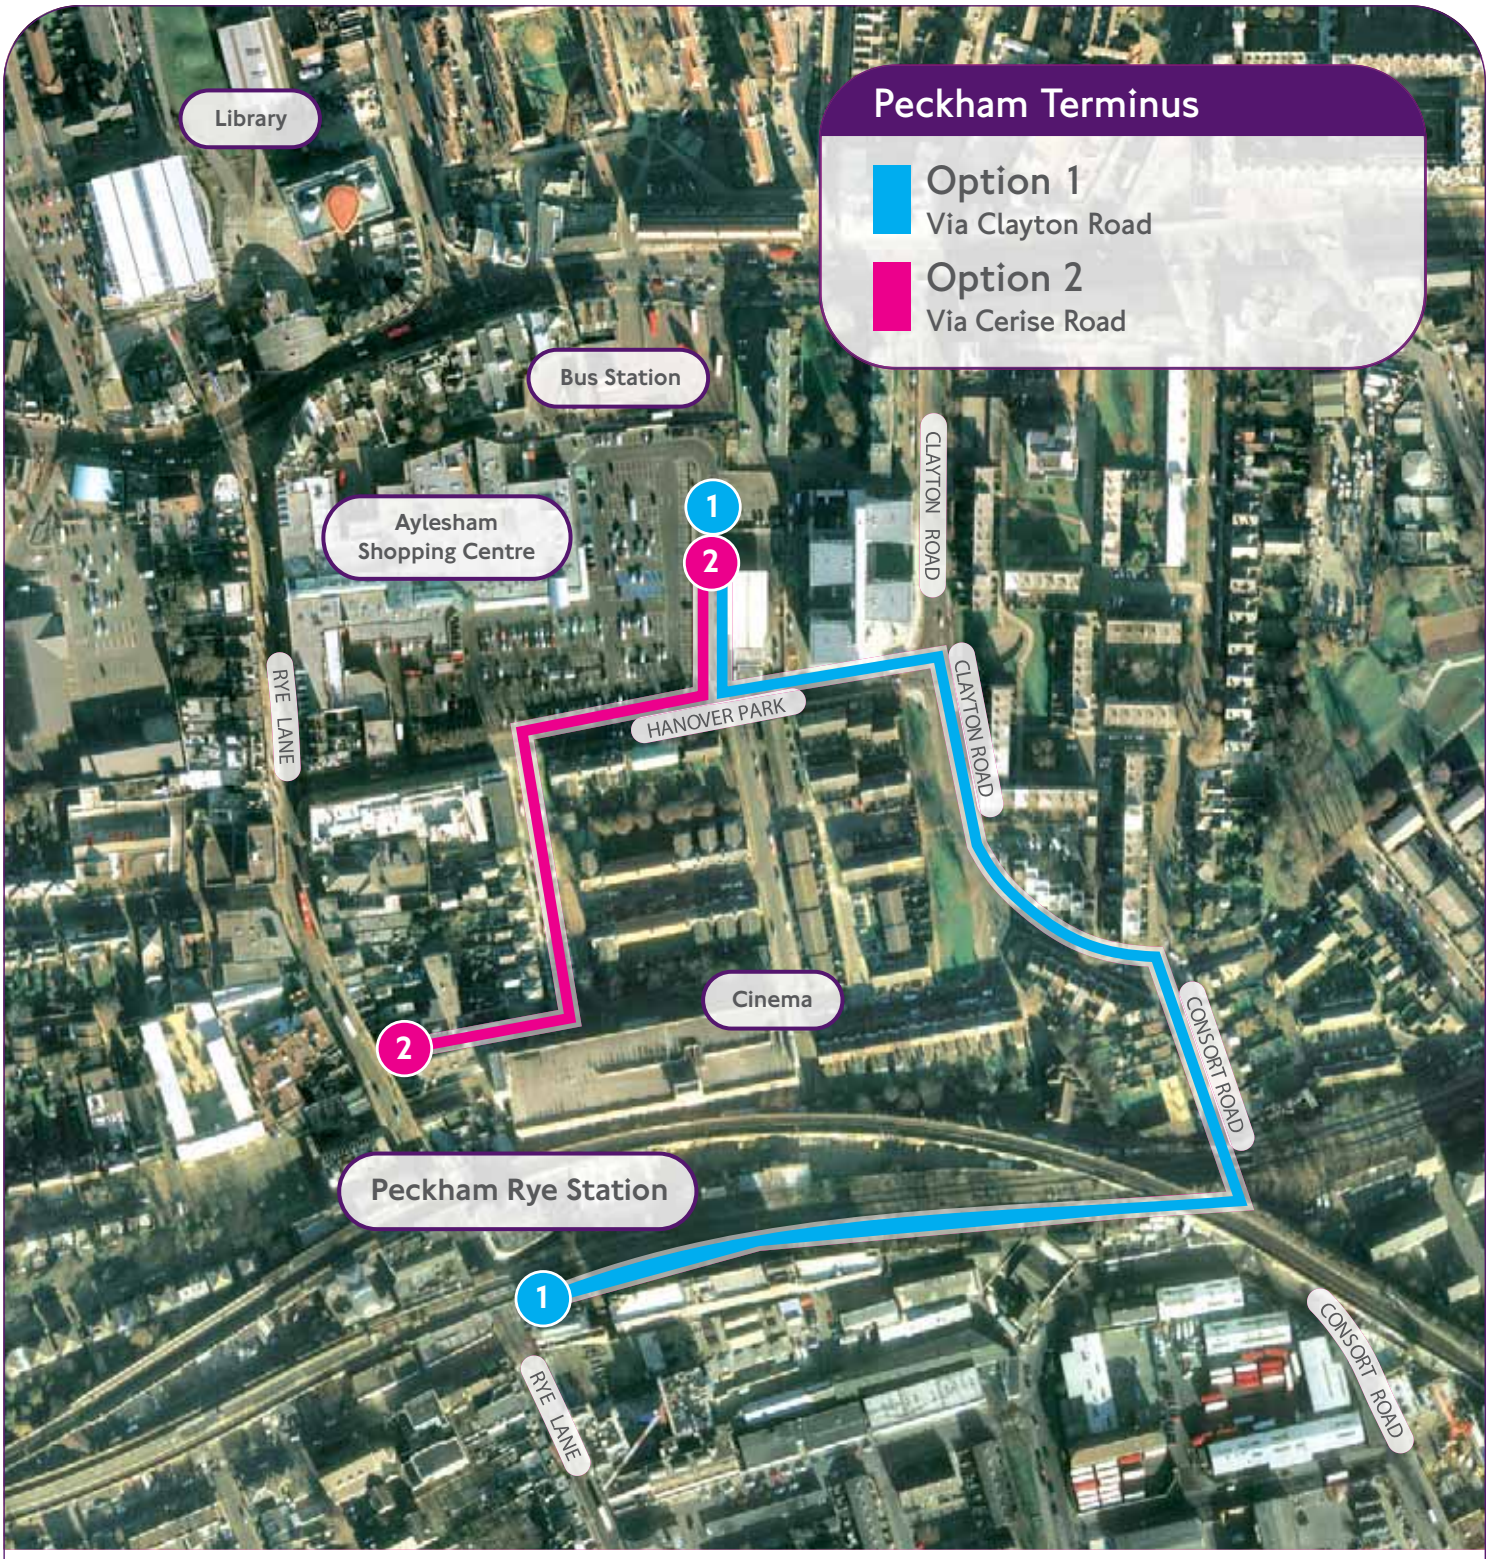


Advantages

- Serves Peckham Town Square without passing through it
- Minimises impact on current street scene, including historic buildings in Peckham High Street

Disadvantages

- Current Post Office would need to be relocated
- Property purchase could be required to deliver this option



Peckham Town Centre Terminus

Option 1 - light blue via Clayton Road

Advantages

- Interchanges with Peckham Rye Station
- Opportunity to use track to possible depot site

Disadvantages

- Longer indirect route between Peckham Rye and the bus station
- Property purchase could be required to deliver this option

Option 2 – pink via Cerise Road

From the bus station the route turns right onto Hanover Park, then left into Cerise Road. The route terminates near the current site of the cinema, with access from Rye Lane.

Advantages

- Shortest route option between Peckham Rye and the bus station
- Serves amenities such as cinema and shopping centres
- Opportunity to integrate with potential regeneration around the multi-storey car park

Disadvantages

- Property purchase could be required to deliver this option
